Denver Museum of Nature and Science

Great Education Colorado is pleased to honor George Sparks who has demonstrated a deep commitment to the students of Colorado and a passion for education policy through his leadership at Denver Museum of Nature and Science and in the community. From his work at the Museum to make hands-on learning and science curriculum available to all children – especially those in underserved schools -- to his service on numerous education related boards, Mr. Sparks has been a leader and a steadfast champion for improved educational opportunities for all children.

Great Education Colorado is a statewide, nonpartisan, grassroots organization that is focused on improving public education in Colorado through sufficient, wise and effective investment in our schools, colleges and universities...

...matching educational reforms with the resources necessary to ensure that all students are prepared for academic success and to become productive members of a globally competitive workforce.
